

Sentence Structure

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence and identify the beginning phrase. Is it telling when, where, why or how? Write it on the line.

_____1. At the beginning of class, Ms. Jenkins passed out the tests.

_____2. Under the bed, I have hidden all of my treasures.

_____3. Without a sound, she crept into the room.

_____4. Hardly noticing the noise, she kept her focus on her work.

_____5. Because of the incident, Jane is no longer allowed to sit with Clark.

Now insert a beginning phrase for each sentence that tells when, where, why or how. The word in parentheses will tell you which kind of phrase to insert.

6. _____, we went out for ice cream. (when)

7. _____, the clock doesn't work. (why)

8. _____, she walked along the water's edge. (how)

9. _____, Tanya and Mark talked about it. (where)

10. _____, she was late every morning. (why)

